

Stirling Libraries

FANTASTIC 'SPECULATIVE' FICTION

Stirling Libraries in coordination with the Science Fiction Association (WA) are proud to offer you the chance to meet

Richard Morgan
UK Sci-Fi Author

and

Trudi Canavan
Australian Fantasy Author

Brought to Perth for the 34th Swancon WA's Annual science-fiction convention

Date	Time	Author	Library
Wednesday, 8 April	5-6pm	Richard Morgan	Scarborough Library
Thursday, 9 April	11:30-12:30am	Trudi Canavan	Osborne Library

Richard Morgan is the author of dark futuristic Sci-Fi thriller Altered Carbon and winner of the 2008 Arthur C. Clark award for his novel The Black Man. He has also written for two Black Widow graphic novels and has forayed into fantasy with his most recent publication, The Steel Remains.

Trudi Canavan is a best-selling Melbourne based author of international acclaim. After winning the Aurealis Award for Best Fantasy Short Story in 1999, she has gone onto best-seller success with The Black Magician and Age of Five trilogies, full of magic and mystery.

Places are limited so please book yours at your local library

Dianella 9275 4022	Inglewood 9370 5366	Karrinyup 9446 8944	Mirrabooka 9344 5474	Osborne 9344 6927	Scarborough 9341 1744
------------------------------	-------------------------------	-------------------------------	--------------------------------	-----------------------------	---------------------------------

Keep an eye out for more Fantastic Speculative Fiction Talks coming in May and June!