Access and Inclusion Advisory

About this book

We are the City's Access and Inclusion Advisory Group.

This book is written so it is easy to read. The first time we use hard words we write them in blue. Then we explain what the word in blue means.

You can get someone to help you:

- read this book
- know what this book is about.

You can ask for more information.

Access and Inclusion Advisory Group

This book is about the Access and Inclusion Advisory Group.

We will call it the group.

We will tell you about the Terms of Reference for the group.

We will call the terms of reference the rules.

About us

We are the City's Access and Inclusion Advisory Group

The Access and Inclusion Advisory Group help the City to

- make choices
- make things better for people with disability.

What words mean

Access means everyone can use it.

Inclusion means that no one is left out.

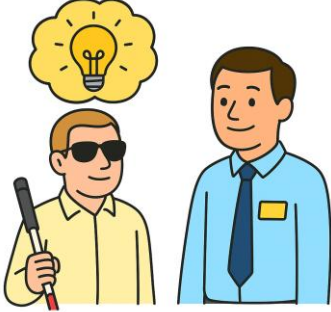

Advisory group means we can help the City

- make choices about access and inclusion
- make things better for people with disability.

Terms of Reference means rules.

Knowledge means knowing things.

Experience means things you learn from work, school or your own life.

Group memebers

Group members can be:

- people with disability
- their friends, family or carers
- people with knowledge and experience in access and inclusion.

City of Stirling staff.

People who work in access and inclusion.

What the group will do

Make sure the City of Stirling helps people with disability.

Help the City of Stirling learn about access and inclusion.

Tell people in the community about what we do.

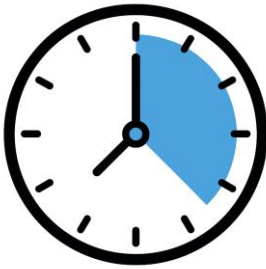

Help make plans for the City of Stirling, like the Disability Access and Inclusion Plan.

Group meetings

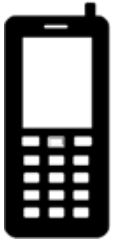

The group will meet once every 2 months.

The meetings will take about 2 hours.
